The Best Sons & Daughters of Africa

African people traveled from Africa, Europe and throughout the U.S. to St. Petersburg, FL for the African People's Socialist Party July 2014 month-long "Best Sons and Daughters of Africa" Cadre Development School.

Chairman Omali Yeshitela's profound theoretical workshops on African Internationalism prepared a new generation of leaders to advance the struggle for the liberation of African people everywhere. After a rigorous experience of collective study, physical training, community organizing, and practical workshops, the cadre participants returned to their respective areas transformed and eager to build new fronts of the African liberation movement.

Zenzele Wins!

Congratulations to Asanda Bikani, APSP Azania, for his winning entry into the naming contest for AAPDEP's newest economic development project: Zenzele Consignment. Zenzele is a Xhosa word meaning, "to do for self." And thanks to APSP Deputy Chair Ona Zene' Yeshitela for our tagline: Confident, Revolutionary, Style!

Zenzele Consignment is slated to open August 2015 in Huntsville Alabama and will not only be a cutting edge consignment boutique, but will also serve as an outreach center winning support and volunteers for AAPDEP's various development programs. To contribute your skills and resources, email Zenzele Consignment: info@zenzeleconsignment.com and like us on Facebook www.facebook.com/ZenzeleConsignment for updates.

Stop Obama's Imperialist Wars At Home and Abroad!

InPDUM Convention Elects Leadership

On September 20-21st InPDUM members from across the U.S. convened on Newark, NJ for the annual convention. InPDUM developed a strategy to expose the Ebola virus and police murders as part of the war on the African community. InPDUM membership elected the new International Executive Committee: Ushindi Watu as Membership Coordinator, Denise Justice as Secretary, and Vanessa Jones as Information & Education Coordinator. Waleeah Brooks was appointed President by APSP Chairman Omali Yeshitela.

Spotlight On Donors

Uhuru Movement Donors Change the World

Denise Justice

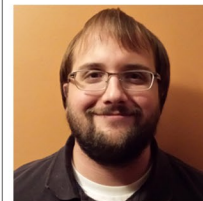

St. Louis, Missouri

From the uprising in Ferguson, Missouri due to police terrorism, to the biological warfare of Ebola on the continent, to the cholera brought into Haiti, we see that African people are suffering all over the world. I financially support the Uhuru Movement to help solidify our mission of One Nation, One Africa and the continuation of our work for African Liberation - the only way to win Our True Freedom.

James Keller

Baltimore, MD

I am meeting more people that are beginning to understand how this system works and is deliberately set up to enslave and hinder black people.

Matt Daniels

Somerville, MA

I support the work of the Uhuru Movement in bringing all of us onto the right side of history. Even though it is African, Latino, Indigenous and other oppressed peoples across the world who bear the true weight of imperialism and capitalism, we white people still have an opportunity to take a stand against this brutality. I support the idea that all people deserve a full life whether in Sierra Leone, Ferguson or Palestine, not just in white communities. I support the Uhuru Movement's scientific approach to building true independence for people who have been denied it for centuries. I support freedom! Uhuru!

Joe Franchi

Philadelphia, PA

It is a privilege to provide material solidarity to the Uhuru Movement. I want to support the Uhuru Movement because it is in the best interest of North Americans.
